IMPORTANT MEETING NOTICE

We do not have any meetings in December & January
The club’s next meeting is on

Tuesday — February 27, 2007—7:30 p.m.—
St. John’s Byzantine Church
Dear Friends,

We started off 2007 with a bang!!!! Had a wonderful time at the New Year’s Eve celebration at the First Hungarian Reformed Church in Walton Hills. Continuing the festivities, on January 7th yours truly and the entourage (Margaret Gorta and Mary Jane Barbey) were invited to attend the send-off for Miss Ohio, Melanie Murphy. Melanie, a Cleveland State Student and a Cavalier’s girl last year, will have about 100 Ohio fans cheering her on at the pageant in Las Vegas, January 29th. Melanie’s very proud maternal grandparents are Miklos and Rose Ligetvari. The audience had a wonderful preview of the gowns and dresses Melanie will be wearing for the competition. We wish her well.

The Board has met and set the schedule for this year’s events. As soon as the orchestras are finalize, we will be publish the schedule in the Hirek.

Remembering 2006 with all the excitement of building our Kapu, I cannot help but reflect on those very special club members we lost in 2006. Each of them, a dear friend and supporter of our Hungarian club, I still see Charlie Nagy working around the grounds, putting up the signs and setting up the beer booth. I remember Mr. Lucskay’s wonderful help with the Hungarian translations. We will miss our long-time members Betty Luckay. I see Strobl Anüs Neni’s ever ready smile and Gabby Suto sitting by the dance floor and enjoying the music at all of our picnics. Maria Friedrich’s stately demeanor and Steve Kozma’s encouraging words

News from Hungary
Miss Bikini World: Girl from Pécs wins.

For the first time in the history of beauty contests a Hungarian woman has won an international competition. The Miss Bikini World 2006 was held in Taiwan on December 21, 2006, and 22 year-old Anita Horváth from Pécs took the title to become the 8th Miss Bikini World. The contest itself was founded by an English organization, the Miss Tourism World Organization, and the first beauty pageant was held in Greece in 1998.
