AILING & HEALING

Jozsef Pastor	Rose Adams
Eleanor Smith	Rose Kokavai
Steve Kekedy	Elizabeth Szabo

Dear Friends:

Let me begin by expressing my sincere thank you to the family of Richard Feury for the delicious contribution of fresh fried fish for the Pig Roast. A huge thank you to Edmond Geber, Todd Bush and Jim Phifer for the fantastic Pig Roast. The szalonna sutés and the előétel (crispy pig skin) really hit the spot. The wonderful variety of pot luck dishes rounded out our banquet table, thanks to everyone who joined us.

We passed our EPA inspection and will now go ahead with preparing plans for the expansion of our kitchen and restroom facilities.

Exciting news — Lajos Mezosi and Margaret attended a two-day auction and secured a walk-in cooler measuring approximately 8x10x10 for the club. Thanks to Karcsi Gombas, Attila Laszlo and Lajos Mezosi for delivering the cooler to the club. A nice start to our expansion.

A special thank you to Linda & Laddie Mantz, Attila Laszlo, Steve Kekedy, Richard Fuery and Andras Geber for putting up all of the picnic tables, taking down the tent, cleaning up the kitchen, draining the water lines and in general, securing our grounds and out buildings for the winter.

Looking forward to our Christmas party at the Mediterranean Party Center on Sunday, December 9th. The Christmas gift exchange will be $5.00 per person.

We are asking all of you to participate in a Food Pantry to be donated to Four C's of Mantua. Please bring your donation of dry or canned food stuff to our meeting on Tuesday, November 27th at St. Johns.

It has been mentioned a number of times to save our club some money, some of you may wish to receive your Hirek via e-mail. Liz Lewis has consented to undertake forwarding the Hirek. Please send us your e-mail address if this process appeals to you.

A number of us had dinner at the Pasha—Mediterranean Grill on SOM Center Road in Solon and we were thoroughly entertained by our dear friend Walt Mahovlich and Steven Greeman of Harmonia. They will also be performing at Pasha on November 10th and November 30th.

I wish to express our deepest sympathies to Betty Jeromos and her family on the recent loss of her mother. At the age of 93, Betty's mother had lived a very full and active life.

Magyar Szeretettel
Mary Jane

Queen Elizabeth’s Favourite Palace

A third of a million people a year visit the former Royal Palace at Gödöllő. One of Hungary’s finest mansions, and less than an hour’s drive from the capital, it was built in the eighteenth century for one Antal Grassalkovich, a legal official who in a most remarkable career rose to be one of the most influential aristocrats and keeper of the Hungarian treasury. Grassalkovich amassed a huge family fortune and had several other mansions built, but it is the elegant creation at Gödöllő, one of the finest of the baroque style, that went on to be used as the inspiration for others around Hungary. Empress Maria Theresa was a frequent guest, but it was later, during the reign of Franz Joseph, that it became the favoured Hungarian residence for the Austro-Hungarian Royal family. The Emperor’s wife, the hugely admired Queen Elizabeth, affectionately known as Sisi, especially loved Gödöllő.

These days the main wing of the Palace once again greets visitors with suitable grandeur, and altogether twenty-six rooms have been restored and opened to the public, including the royal apartments, the grand hall and Franz Joseph’s study. Concerts and cultural festivals are regularly held in the Palace and in its courtyard. The baroque theatre, a rarity in Europe, has been restored, and after 200 years, has once again become a working theatre.
